

AUDITIONS SINGERS BACHKOOR HOLLAND

Bachkoor Holland has been praised since its foundation in 1921 for the exceptionally high level of its performances of the works of J.S. Bach. Conductor Gijs Leenaars is - in addition to the permanent conductor and artistic director of the Bach Choir Holland - chief conductor and artistic director of the Rundfunkchor of Berlin. The company has since 2018 the New Church in Delft as home base. Here, in 2019, the Matthäus Passion and the Weihnachtsoratorium will be performed together with the Concertgebouw Chamber Orchestra.

Bach Choir Holland is looking for basses, tenors, altos, sopranos

Working at the Bach Choir Holland offers a great opportunity to make music at a high level. Are you a professional singer (es) or working at that level and do you have experience with singing in an ensemble? Sign up for the auditions on Saturday 26 and Sunday 27 January. For the performances of the Matthäus Passion and the Weihnachtsoratorium 2019 we are looking for basses and tenors, and secondly, altos and sopranos. The performances of the St. Matthew Passion take place on:

Tuesday, April 16, 7:30 pm Grote Kerk, Lochem

Wednesday, April 17, 7:30 pm St. Vitus Church, Hilversum

Thursday, April 18, 7:30 pm Nieuwe Kerk, Delft

Good Friday April 19, 11:30 am (part 1) 2:30 pm (part 2) Nieuwe Kerk, Delft

Auditions on Saturday 26 and Sunday 27 January

During the audition you are asked to perform the following: a song or aria of choice, the opening choir from the St. Matthew Passion choir 1 and a chorale of choice from St. Matthew Passion by J.S. Bach. The location and the exact time of the auditions will be determined.
